

PACIFIC LOCK

Introduces the "PAC-SHIELD"

Official Release Date: ALOA '07

What: The right answer to the problem of finding a padlock that is

"High Security and Highly Weather Resistant"

Why: Every other manufacturer has taken the wrong approach ~ they start with a high security lock and try to make it weather resistant with special plastic coatings or gromets

Details: Start with a highly weather resistant padlock (like any PACLOCK brass rekeyable) and add the high security "Shield" ~ turns any padlock into a shielded padlock! Also works with American Lock®

Pricing: TBD, around $15 retail

Availability: July

Protected Under US Patent #5,146,771
